CLUBS GAIN FROM NIGHT SOCCER

Mr. John Oliphant, Chairman, Night Soccer Committee.

A financial statement and dissection covering the business side of the 1956 Sun Cup series was submitted to Council at its last meeting by Mr. John Oliphant, Chairman of the Night Soccer Committee, and revealed substantial benefits to the participating Clubs.

Including their direct percentage from gates, and their share of an equalising pool set aside to offset weather affected nights, the Clubs received cheques as follows: J.U.S.T., finalist, £253; Hakoah, finalist, £239; Moreland, semi-finalist, £144; Polonia, semi-finalist, £133; Box Hill, £138; Juventus, £137; Brighton, £126; and Wilhelmina, £102.

Other beneficiaries of the series were the Association, whose percentage was £344, and the soccer movement as a whole, which received valuable publicity.

It is anticipated that the 1957 Sun Cup, which will be played at the South Melbourne Cricket Ground instead of the Showgrounds, will prove even more successful.

ZAKOMAROK OUT FOR TWO YEARS!

Admits Guilt, Pleads Provocation

Sent off for violent conduct after 15 minutes of play in the Slavia-J.U.S.T. match of June 9, and charged before the Disciplinary Committee with having struck Bell, Slavia's outside right, Steve Zakomarok was suspended for two years.

Zakomarok admitted having punched Bell, but pleaded intense provocation, claiming that he had been kicked twice by Bell prior to his "retaliation."

Steve Zakomarok.

Showing the Committee weals on his thigh which he claimed were the results of kicks, Zakomarok closed his description of the incident by stating:

"I am not crazy — do you think I would strike a player in front of officials and hundreds of spectators without the worst kind of provocation?"

Referee Huchinson reported that he did not see the punch, but turned around to see Bell on the ground and several officials running on to the pitch. He called on Linesman E. Gray for a report, and because of what he was told, immediately sent Zakomarok off. He awarded a penalty kick to Slavia, and later instructed Mr. Gray to submit a report to the Association.

Mr. Gray's report stated that he had seen no foul play or provocation of any kind from Bell. Johnny Dickson, Slavia's captain, and Mr. Harry Fuksa, Slavia's Secretary, concurred, Mr. Fuksa adding that he had never seen such an act of brutality before.

Bill Bell stated that he had just eluded Zakomarok and had booted a snap shot for goal, when he was tackled by Zakomarok, and both fell. He got up, and was walking back to take up position when, without the slightest warning, he was stunned by a severe punch on the side of the mouth. He was positive, he said, in answer to questions, that there had been no previous incidents or words of a provocative nature.

INTERSTATE TOURS TO AID SELECTORS

Olympic Team After All-State Games

Extensive interstate tours of combined teams will take place in July and August, closely watched by Australian selectors, with a view to selection of an Olympic team before September.

The first move will be to select a team combining representatives from the three Eastern States — Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland. This side will visit Western Australia, South Australia and Tasmania, and will close its tour with a game in Melbourne. This team will then disband and another combined side chosen.

The second team will comprise all players who caught the selectors' eyes during the first tour, and may include players from all six States. This team will play against State teams in Sydney and Brisbane.

The third step will be to narrow the field down to 30 players, who will be divided into two teams of All-State Possibles and Probables. These two sides will meet each other in two trial games — one in Sydney and one in Newcastle.

From what the selectors see in these two games, the Australian Olympic team will be chosen.

Here is a summary of the programme:

PERTH, JULY 14—
Three-State Team v. Western Australia.

ADELAIDE, JULY 18—
Three-State Team v. South Australia.

HOBART, JULY 21—
Three-State Team v. Tasmania.

MELBOURNE, JULY 22—
Three-State Team v. Victoria.

BRISBANE, AUGUST 4—
All-State Team v. Queensland.

SYDNEY, AUGUST 5—
All-State Team v. New South Wales.

SYDNEY, AUGUST 18; NEWCASTLE, AUGUST 19—
All-State Possibles v. All-State Probables.

OPERATION ESCORT

Escorted by a hovering Navy "helicopter," Italian "man-o'-war" Plateo sails within range of the "enemy" and is about to fire a broadside. This was part of the Navy manoeuvres at the Showgrounds last week.

50 and Over Department

An unimpressive 3rd Division team and a strong 2nd Division side were brought into balance with a 1-1 Dockerty Cup draw last week, when Moorabbin City fielded new goalkeeper Mitchell, who lifted its defence to new heights, and Sunshine City, which, suffering from absenteeism due to illnesses, fielded some Reserves and one well-known veteran.

The latter, well on in years from a playing point of view, gave the youngsters a lesson in ball distribution, control and fitness. He played at centre forward for the first half, and centre half, later. At the end of the 120 minutes of play he wasn't even breathing hard.

Higgins was the name — Tom Higgins, Secretary of Sunshine City.

ZAKOMAROK OUT!

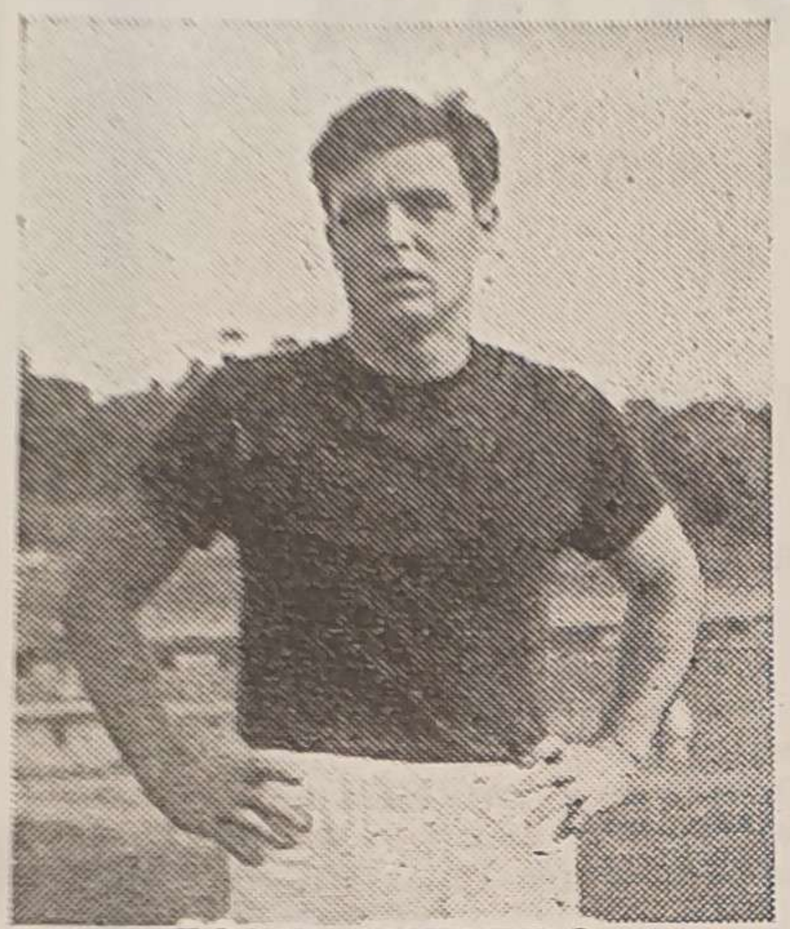
In announcing the Committee's decision, the Chairman (Mr. F. Lang) reminded Zakomarok of his several cautions and his unenviable reputation over the years. He stated further that provocation had no bearing whatsoever on the guilt or otherwise of a player who commits an assault, but was allowed in evidence because of its possible effect on penalties. In this case, the Committee had decided on the weight of evidence that no provocation existed.

CUBERO NEAR TOP OF MEDAL VOTING

May Gain Tomorrow



JOSE CUBERO.

J.U.S.T.'s star inside left, Jose Cubero, is in a handy position to the lead in the "Argus" Best and Fairest Medal voting, and could win major points in the game against Hakoah to-morrow.

Players with five votes or more are listed below:

Wemyss (Polonia)	19
Dobrilovic (Prahran)	17
Cubero (J.U.S.T.)	13
Garland (Box Hill)	11
Lachmann (Slavia)	10
Vivoli (Juventus)	10
Zablocki (Slavia)	9
Stott (Moreland)	8
Garrett (Brighton)	7
Waitzer (Brighton)	7
Piercy (Hakoah)	6
Loughran (Moreland)	6
Morrow (Box Hill)	5
Pangrazio (Juventus)	5
Harburn (Hakoah)	5
Trentini (Juventus)	5
Senisen (J.U.S.T.)	5
Strahan (Polonia)	5
Jakobowski (Polonia)	5

JUST v. Rebuild Tomorrow

J.U.S.T. has a timely opportunity to take a valuable brace of points when it meets the desperately rebuilding Hakoah at Middle Park to-morrow afternoon.

Allowing for the type of football Hakoah was forced to face in its Cup tie with Preston last week, the new line-up still requires a lot of polishing up for the hard tasks ahead.

Aldo Vitti, the new 'keeper, is showing lack of match practice by uncertain handling to a minor degree.

Young McIvor, brought in from the Reserves, played a grand game last Sunday, but will he do as well against the wily Cubero and Co.?

Will Milo Vesovic be able to hold Lolly Vella, who has the speed of a gazelle?

Jones, the new inside right from Cardiff City, does not yet seem 100 per cent fit, and both he and John Blackley, the inside left, late of Polonia, have yet to develop understanding with the old remnants of Hakoah's forward line.

FRACAS AT GEELONG

Game With Sunshine City to be Re-Played

Because of the explosive atmosphere which had developed during the second half, allegedly caused by vocal and physical interference with the game by spectators, Referee G. Pedler abandoned the Geelong-Sunshine City game in the eightieth minute.

League Management has heard the referee's report, and a protest by Sunshine City, and has ordered the game to be re-played on a neutral pitch at a time to be decided by the Fixtures Committee.

Major trouble commenced when Massese, Geelong's 'keeper, rushed at the referee, vociferously disputing a penalty kick decision, and making gestures that Mr. Pedler interpreted as threatening. Massese was restrained by his team-mates, but was ordered off. By this time, the ground was invaded be Geelong supporters, who menaced the referee. Only the most strenuous efforts of Geelong Committeemen prevented the pushing and shoving from developing into an aggravated assault.

When the ground was finally cleared, and flanker Stoop had taken up a position in goal, the penalty kick was taken. Before the result of the kick was known, the referee signalled an infringement by Stoop, who had moved before the kick, and ordered a re-take.

Again the pitch was invaded by spectators, and Mr. Pedler felt that no course remained other than to abandon the game.

The fact that the score upon abandonment stood 2-1 in favour of Geelong, with Sunshine City entitled to a penalty kick, League Management felt that City had been unfairly deprived of a chance to draw or win, and ordered a re-play.

In the course of the hearing, information was elicited to the effect that something under 150 spectators were present, and that, although 12 Geelong Committeemen were on the ground, they had failed to keep the small crowd behind the post-and-rail fence that surrounds the pitch, and permitted them to stand right on the goal- and touch-lines.

Because of this, Geelong was ordered to provide police henceforth for every home game.

'Keeper Hurt at Work

Jack Davies, Sandringham's Reserve goalie, suffered severe burns at his work the other day, and will not be able to play for about five weeks.

The Hammers have sent out a desperate S.O.S. in the hope that it will be heard by a reasonably reliable goalkeeper who happens to be disengaged. Telephone enquiries to XW 5859 (day), or XU 4307 (evenings).

CORRECTION !

Last week's "Soccer News" reported that Ukrainia lost to Poland 0-3. Actually, Ukrainia led 2-1 at the interval, and lost 2-3. This is the same team which, as Lions, were leading J.U.S.T. 4-0 after 65 minutes of play in their Cup tie last Saturday before they ran out of gas and allowed the Jugoslavs to put on six goals.

This might help to obviate the necessity of answering the question another 100 times — the lady in the red coat doing her noble bit to keep this publication solvent by selling "Soccer News" around the 1st Division circuit is the Editor's wife.

Slavia smiles again! The loss of Teddy Bialek from the forward line (because of a broken shoulder) was a terrific blow, but Joe Gottesman is expected to don the Red and White strip to-day and fill the gap.

WINGER

One of the stars of last week's round of Cup ties was unquestionably Preston's youthful goalkeeper, Victor Bugeja. Tally of goals for Hakoah, which gained the upper hand in the second half, particularly after Johnny Pedzimak was sent off, would have been far greater had it not been for Victor's splendid display.

✦ ✦

Last Saturday, 11 players took the field at Port Melbourne whose combined ages totalled 376 years, and whose total weight was close to 180 stone. Calling themselves Slavia's Old Supporters, and in strip especially made for the occasion, they played a team sponsored by the Czech newspaper, "Hlasdomova." The result, after two 35-minute halves, was a 1-1 draw, and the match has been spontaneously voted the season's most entertaining game.

COBURG PAYS DEARLY FOR HOT TEMPERS

Preston Game Costs Four Players

Any chance Coburg had of wresting 3rd Division leadership from Preston in their game on June 9 was lost when, with the score 2-1 in Preston's favour, the game was abandoned because of bad-tempered misconduct on the part of Coburg's three Sacco brothers.

According to Referee Lamb's report, a chain reaction was touched off when he sent off E. Sacco, Coburg centre-forward, for serious foul play. Although previously cautioned, this player allegedly chased an opponent who had taken the ball from him, and kicked him.

Brother L. Sacco, inside right, then rushed up, allegedly pushed the referee, and abused him. He, too, was ordered off, but refused to go, and had to be restrained from attacking Mr. Lamb.

When the third brother, R. Sacco (the goalkeeper), joined in the melee, the referee felt that he had no other choice than to abandon the game.

After the game, the referee's report continues, left full-back S. Galea approached him in the official's dressing room and kicked him in the ankle.

Brought before the Disciplinary Committee, all four players denied the allegations, but were inconsistent in their versions of what happened. E. Sacco was suspended for four weeks, and the other three players were each awarded eight weeks' suspension.

When the matter was brought before it, League Management allowed the game to be recorded as it stood when abandoned at 80 minutes.

SLAVIA'S LAST CHANCE FOR LEAD TODAY

Moreland Optimistic

In what could easily be its last chance to take League leadership from last year's Premiers, Slavia will play all out to topple Juventus this afternoon at the Showgrounds.

Although they beat the Italians at Port Melbourne on Easter Monday, Slavia will find Juventus at the Showgrounds an entirely different proposition. In addition, Slavia is without the services of centre-forward Ted Bialek, who suffered a broken shoulder in a World Cup game two weeks ago.

On the other hand, Juventus will field its strongest team yet. Plateo, his suspension finished, will be back at centre-forward, and, with the brainy Sacco at his side, should score the winning tallies. At the same time, the Italians' defence, the soundest in the League, should keep Slavia either scoreless or nearly so.

Remembering their defeat of Polonia earlier in the season, Moreland supporters are optimistic about their chances of winning the early match at the Showgrounds. However, since Easter Monday, the day of their last clash, Moreland have been defeated six times in eight games, while the Redshirts haven't lost a game. Still, the Browns have pulled off miracles before. . . .

Prahran's lack of stability, as indicated by constant team changes, will hardly help the Club at Box Hill, and Brighton should be too strong for Footscray City at Elsternwick.

To-morrow's J.U.S.T.-Hakoah game at Middle Park has been reviewed on another page.

SUNSHINE CITY MAY JOIN TOP FOUR

Park Rangers Should Climb

The only occasions on which Hellenic loses are those on which it meets teams that display bulldog tenacity and the never-say-die spirit, whereupon the Greek side tends to become exasperated, and proceeds to defeat itself.

This could happen to-day in its match with Sunshine City, and should it do so, the Sunshiners have a chance — a slender one perhaps — of climbing into the four.

On the previous occasion that a pleasant afternoon was predicted for the opponents of the Colts, they whipped Yallourn. Nevertheless, a picnic match is predicted for Wilhelmina at Hawthorn today.

Park Rangers should get the opportunity of climbing out of Relegation Row to-day at the expense of George Cross. They will have to reproduce their Dockerty Cup form of last week, when they gave Brighton an uneasy 90 minutes, to succeed in doing so, however.

Yallourn's recent form has been inconsistent, while South Yarra has improved. Whether their relative strengths have reached levels that will enable South Yarra to beat Yallourn at home is questionable.

South Melbourne is the enigma of the 2nd Division, winning and losing games unexpectedly. Geelong is naturally selected to win this one, but this game could provide the upset of the day.

F.N.D. v. Frankston.

This game was played on June 2, and resulted in a draw, 4-4.

EASY ROUND FOR LEADERS

With the exception of Preston and Dandenong, who'll have a hard tussle at the Gippsland Gateway, 3rd Division leaders should have no trouble maintaining their positions on the ladder to-day.

Game of the day should be the Brunswick-Maccabi fixture, the result of which is virtually unpredictable. Issy Ressler could help Maccabi to win it by the odd goal.

To-day's F.N.D.-Frankston fixture was moved forward to June 2 because of the Navy's mid-winter leave period, and resulted in a 4-4 draw.

Under 15's please note — Wesley College has obtained the use of Hurlingham Park, Brighton, for their home games.

✦ ✦

Ladder for Under 13's cannot be produced until certain Club Secretaries put themselves out just a wee bit — just long enough to send in the necessary results.

✦ ✦

Home ground for Wilhelmina's Juniors is still Burnley — NOT Hawthorn.

✦ ✦

"Soccer News" regrets that it lacks the space to print the reports on games played by Essendon's three teams as sent in regularly by the Club's Publicity Officer, Mr. B. Mathews.

They are journalistic gems, but unfortunately we only have space for highlights.
